Marubeni Office Support Corporation recognized as Superior Company for employing persons with disabilities by Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare

The Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare (“MHLW”) has recognized Marubeni Office Support Corporation (“MOS”), a 100% subsidiary of Marubeni Corporation (“Marubeni”), as a Superior Company for employing persons with various disabilities.

MHLW established the award to encourage companies to actively employ persons with disabilities such as those with mental disorders or various forms of physical disability and mental impairment. This year MOS received the honor with 20 other leading companies.

MOS was established in November 2008 as a *Special Subsidiary of Marubeni to provide adequate working opportunities under the reasonable accommodation for persons with various disabilities. At present, MOS employs 35 staff with various disabilities (13 with mental disorders, 14 with physical disabilities, 8 mentally impaired) and 8 non-handicapped staff. The staff work together and support each other, enabling MOS to offer high quality office services such as payroll processing, business card printing, welfare support, and office cleaning to the Marubeni Group.

MOS and its colleagues acknowledge this recognition as an honorable reward owing to not only their own continuous efforts, but also to those of all concerned parties. MOS highly appreciates the support it receives and will continue its efforts to expand the employment of persons with various disabilities.
